Faces of Hope
2009/2010 Annual Report
In 1996 the first gift was made to the Alive in Hope Campaign; a historic event in the life of the Diocese of Brooklyn. That first expression of generosity begot another, and another, leading to the creation of the Alive in Hope Foundation.

Fifteen years later, over $28 million has been distributed in support of the Catholic community in Brooklyn and Queens.

Those first expressions of generosity have filled thousands of Faces with Hope.
Let me begin with a fervent “thank you” to all for your prayerful support of The Alive in Hope Foundation and your ongoing generosity to the missions of the Foundation.

We have been hard at work to fulfill our mission of providing financial support to the ministries of the Catholic Church in Brooklyn and Queens. Our eight “core” endowments totaling about $32 million support a wide range of ministries: religious education, vocations, lay leadership, senior priests, Catholic schools, senior citizens, clergy education and migration affairs. Because of financial market conditions, we were unable to provide any significant grants for the 2009/2010 fiscal year but these core endowments will provide a total of $3 million for the 2010/2011 and 2011/2012 fiscal years. Furthermore, we have set aside enough funds to provide at least the same level of support for the following two years irrespective of financial market conditions!

During the same 2010–2012 period, grants from other endowments and payments from donor informed funds should total about $1 million.

Over the past several years, a major objective for both Futures in Education (our sister foundation within the Diocese of Brooklyn) and Alive in Hope has been to provide financial assistance to our Catholic schools and the students in those schools. After extensive discussion, the two foundations have agreed that they would more effectively support the Diocese’s ministries as a whole by having Futures in Education continue its focus on Catholic schools while Alive in Hope would continue to make grants from its McEntegart Endowment for Catholic schools and from its other smaller endowments and funds established for Catholic schools.

So, the Alive in Hope Foundation will have a new look beginning in 2012 as we implement a strategic vision that we believe will better meet the needs of our Church. After consultation with Bishop DiMarzio and other Diocesan leaders about those needs, the Board of Alive in Hope has decided that our first step will be a significant increase in our efforts to fund Diocesan and parish ministries for youth, including evangelization. This ministry is vitally important in helping our young people grow in the Catholic faith and acquire the values base necessary in making good decisions in every area of their life.

Another major focus will be additional revenue for Catholic Migration Services (CMS). CMS represents the Church’s ministry to newcomers in its most concrete form by providing non-profit legal services and counseling to thousands of immigrants each year with particular emphasis on the following issues: immigration, housing and employment. Since its inception, the Ministry has served immigrants from at least 167 countries who, collectively, speak more than 80 languages.

While Youth Ministry and the Migration Ministry will receive considerable emphasis, Alive in Hope remains committed to increasing assistance to the other ministries represented within our core endowments. And we will align those efforts with the often expressed desire of donors to use their funds in support of a specific ministry of the Church about which they are particularly passionate. Donors may direct their contributions to any of the ministries represented in our eight core endowments as well as Youth Ministry and Evangelization (we already have the Bishop Thomas V. Daily Fund established for the Migration Ministry). At the donor’s direction, those contributions could be used to increase that ministry’s endowment or be expended immediately in support of the ministry’s current operations.

Finally, we are pleased to welcome Thomas O’Brien to Alive in Hope as Development Director. Tom joins the Foundation from the Diocese of Norwich, Connecticut where he served as that Diocese’s Development Director. We expect that Tom and our Director of Operations, John Notaro, will together provide the professional leadership to achieve our strategic vision.

Most of all, we ask that you continue your prayers in support of our Church in all of her works.

May God bless you always,

Joseph E. Geoghan, Chairman
As you well know, the Diocese of Brooklyn strives to fulfill its role in the life of the Catholic Church through ministries that support our outreach and evangelization. Although recent years have been a time of many challenges, our commitment to witness the compassionate presence of Jesus Christ in our parishes, schools and ministries sustains and motivates our work.

Our faith compels us to address the needs of other members of the Body of Christ: those who are in need of spiritual nourishment and guidance, who are alone or in pain, or who are in distress. By nourishing the ministries of our Diocese—our community of faith that reaches beyond the boundaries of any one parish—we share our faith with others and reach out to those in need. The goal of the Alive in Hope Foundation (AIHF) is to continue the redemptive work of Christ in our world.

Through the AIHF, we partner with our parishes and members of our Diocesan family to help the poor, work for justice, promote the dignity of life, care for our seminarians and retired priests, and provide programs of education and formation for all ages. These programs are available each day, throughout our Diocese, because of your generosity and the generosity of people like you.

As we consider these and other initiatives which will strengthen our Church, I remain grateful to and inspired by the faithful of the Diocese of Brooklyn and by all who work, minister and serve so faithfully on behalf of Christ and His Church. I admire the earnest service of the members of The Alive in Hope Foundation Board of Directors. They have exemplified a wise and generous Christian stewardship.

Oftentimes there is a tendency to take for granted the good that people do, the time they sacrifice, the talents they offer, and the money they freely give. Be assured that I do not take your generosity for granted. I realize that my words and feelings of gratitude fall far short, but I know that our loving Lord is well aware of your efforts and He will surely bless you for the work that we do together in His Name.

You will be remembered in my prayers—please remember me in yours!

In Christ’s Peace,

Rev. Monsignor Jamie J. Gigantiello
Vicar for Development, Diocese of Brooklyn

Detective Thomas W. Higdon, Jr. Scholarship Fund
Detective Thomas W. Higdon, Jr. became ill at work on October 21, 2009. His fellow officers called an ambulance, and he was taken to Jamaica Hospital where he was diagnosed with a particularly aggressive form of pneumonia and passed away shortly after being admitted. Tommy was 38 years old. He was not accustomed to being sick; therefore, he went to work that day thinking he only had a cold. This totally unexpected tragedy caused his close-knit family unbearable grief.

Tommy’s family decided that a fitting tribute to celebrate his life, and at the same time, benefit children at St. Clare’s Catholic School in Rosedale, Queens, where Tommy attended would be to establish a memorial scholarship fund. Tommy’s family, including his grandfathers, aunts, cousins, and friends honor his devotion to all of us, his dedication to duty, and his high level of commitment to his community.

Through the Detective Thomas W. Higdon, Jr. Scholarship Fund, $2,250 is awarded annually to St. Claire’s students in grades 6 through 8. The winners of the scholarship will be based on a comic art competition—an artist at heart, Tommy really embraced this particular genre.

To celebrate Tommy’s dedication to his family, his duty and the communities he served, his family hosted a dinner dance in Spring, 2010, raising more than $23,000 toward the Detective Thomas W. Higdon, Jr. Scholarship Fund.

Tommy’s fellow police officers filled the dining room in Douglaston where Police Commissioner Raymond W. Kelly was the guest speaker. Their support is indicative of the camaraderie of the force. Their generosity, along with those of Tommy’s family and friends helped establish this fund, and through it the spirit of Tommy will live on through the students receiving scholarships.

“Everybody can be great. Because anybody can serve... You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.”—Martin Luther King, Jr.
Charitable Giving

Gifts to the Alive in Hope Foundation create a significant and everlasting impact on the Church in Brooklyn and Queens. A gift is made when a donor decides to transfer ownership of something with monetary value to the Foundation, now or at the time of death. A donor may direct the gift to one or more beneficiaries: for example, a parish, school, ministry or the Diocese. Some donors prefer to add their gift to a Fund already established with the Alive in Hope Foundation.

The Foundation offers donors a wide variety of options for giving that allow the opportunity to customize gifts meaningful to them and their families, while meeting their financial needs.

Establishing an endowment is a significant act of Christian charity and a lasting way of supporting one's personal philanthropic interests. Endowed funds provide a source of continuous support to beneficiaries. The principal remains undisturbed, and earnings are allocated annually to support specific entities.

Endowment funds are monitored and managed with counsel from a team of professional investment advisors. The Foundation’s assets are invested in socially and morally responsible funds that are not in conflict with the tenets of Roman Catholic doctrine.

The Foundation currently houses 98 endowed funds, benefiting individual students, parishes, schools and ministries in Brooklyn and Queens. If you are interested in establishing an endowment, or want to discuss whether it is the appropriate vehicle for your intentions, please call the Foundation office.

Faces of Hope

Legacy
Think you need a fortune to become a Philanthropist? Think again!

“The one who has hope lives differently; the one who hopes has been granted the gift of a new life.” —Pope Benedict XVI
The Fons Vitae Society acknowledges the many members and friends of the Diocese of Brooklyn for their living legacy gifts, and/or their intention to remember the Alive in Hope Foundation, the Diocese, its parishes, schools, and special ministries or a combination, in their estate plans.

Membership in the Society includes the celebration of an annual Society Mass at St. James Cathedral, listing on the Society Honor Roll permanently displayed at the Cathedral, and other acknowledgments.

An appointed Board of Directors governs the Alive in Hope Foundation. As representatives of both clerical and lay communities, these Catholic leaders come from parishes and services in the Diocese of Brooklyn. The Board directs its efforts to the sound stewardship of resources under the spiritual guidance and leadership of Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio. Grant applications are reviewed, and recommendations made by appointed review committees. Finances are managed and monitored with counsel from professional investment advisors. Assets are invested in socially and morally responsible funds that do not conflict with Church teachings.

As good stewards of God’s gifts, we have the responsibility to provide a solid foundation for our family, diocese, parishes, schools and special ministries not only today but tomorrow—and beyond.
