The Impact Your Support has on People in Brooklyn and Queens

Vocations $2,500,000

Fr. Ralph Edel Chaplain at St. Francis Prep

"The fact is that I wouldn't be a priest if not for the Annual Catholic Appeal. Donations to the Annual Catholic Appeal which support seminarians can feel abstract to donors because you don't always know all of the seminarians personally; they're not always from your parish. But I'm here to tell you the impact you have on the formation of priests through the Annual Catholic Appeal is real and helps in a very, very meaningful way. I'm evidence of that and hopefully, my work as a priest shows my appreciation for what those people who have donated in past years did for me during my formation. I take this opportunity to really give love and then give thanks to everybody who donates to the Annual Catholic Appeal for allowing me to realize my vocation and now serve as a priest of God to His people in the Diocese of Brooklyn."

Catholic Migration Services $600,000

Betzaida worked for a Brooklyn-based factory and was fired in March of last year with 20 co-workers after protesting to improve their working conditions. She and her colleagues were requesting masks from their employer to continue their jobs during the COVID-19 pandemic. Catholic Migration Services filed an unfair labor practice charge with the National Labor Relations Board, claiming the company retaliated against the group after they banded together to improve working conditions - a violation of the National Labor Relations Act. The former employees are hoping that the charges will result in money that they lost out on after being fired, or even just getting their jobs back.

He was also assigned to Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Queens Village, where he was responsible for the ecumenical activities in the diocese. Msgr. Mulkerin moved to Bishop Mugavero Residence about 4 years ago. He currently has an aide who helps care for him. Msgr. Mulkerin is very grateful for the many programs available at the residence to care for the needs of the priests. He is most grateful to the contributors of the Annual Catholic Appeal who make their stay at Bishop Mugavero enjoyable.

Anthony Olivieri 2020 graduate from St. Francis Prep

"To me is extremely important to have Father Ralph at St. Francis Prep as the school chaplain. He always made me feel comfortable sharing my faith with others and is the reason I got involved with campus ministry while attending high school.

There are struggles that kids of my age go through, such as peer pressure, Fr. Ralph was always there to reassure us that we're God's children and we're meant to be who God made us. Whether dealing with school work, friends or family issues, he was always there to talk to us and help get us through our problems. He always has time for the students at Prep.

I'm extremely grateful to everyone who donated to the Annual Catholic Appeal because I honestly don't know how I would have gotten through my time in high school without Father Ralph."

Ms. Lorena De FilippisDirector of Faith Formation St. Clare Church

"Like most things the COVID-19 pandemic brought parish religious education programs to a standstill in the spring of 2020. However, thanks to the Diocesan Office of Faith Formation which is funded by the Annual Catholic Appeal, Religious Education Programs in parishes throughout Brooklyn and Queens, like ours, received the direction and support needed to continue teaching our Children about Christ. The ACA made it possible for guidelines to be instituted across the diocese as well as the introduction of new tools to keep our children safe and introduce them to Christ. One of the graces uncovered seems to be the reinforcing of the family as the main witness of the risen Lord. Because we are using Zoom for Religious Education, parents have had to take a more active role in the virtual classroom experience and therefore the faith life of their children. The diocesan coordination of online Religious Education registration using GiveCentral has allowed enrollment in our programs easier for parents as well as administrators who have had to deal with so much this year. Additional online uses made available by funding from the ACA through the Faith Formation office allow us at St. Clares to foster mass attendance through our virtual platform and break open the word with Pflaum gospel weeklies and their online tools for parents and catechists. Monies which support Faith Formation from the Annual Catholic Appeal allowed us to adapt to the digital world, and we

Youth Minister, Blessed Virgin Mary Help of Christians Church, Woodside, NY

"The teens in the Youth Ministry at Blessed Virgin Mary Help of Christians Church in Woodside, Queens, have grown stronger together in faith through their shared experience of all the hardships of the pandemic—loved ones getting sick and dying, isolation and loneliness, and all the challenges this year has brought on. Throughout the Zoom calls and Instagram livestreams we've had since the beginning of the pandemic to continue to serve our teens, they've been not only encouraging and uplifting each other, but they've been constantly speaking of God's faithfulness and His peace that is their anchor through all of the turmoil. They share often how much they need Jesus and how He has gotten them through all their struggles. One of the teens recently said at a Youth Night, "When I need hope, I turn to the Cross." Since re-opening, we've been doing a mix of in-person and online Youth Nights, teen girls' and guys' small groups, and coffee hours, with the highlight of each month being an XLT, a night of Eucharistic Adoration and worship in the church where the teens get the chance to reflect with one another and pray heart-to-heart before our Lord in the Eucharist. Thank you to all of the donors for the Annual Catholic Appeal who have so generously supported Youth Ministry in the Diocese of Brooklyn: thanks to your efforts, we've been able to continue pouring out Christ's love for our teens who need Him now more than ever!"

Futures in Education

Changing lives through the gift of education

Daniel Royer – Catholic school parent

During the past year, we have seen the direct impact that the Annual Catholic Appeal provides to funding the mission of Futures in Education. When parents Daniel and Laura Royer both lost their hospitality jobs in March of 2020, they were determined to make sure their three children could continue learning at Immaculate Conception Catholic Academy. Through the combined funding efforts of the Annual Catholic Appeal and Futures in Education, the Royers received additional financial aid to ensure their children could continue to receive the same Catholic education they know and love. After moving away from the city for a while during the pandemic, the Royers took advantage of the diocesan remote learning program, and their children are still attending Immaculate Conception remotely. "The diocese does a very good job with remote learning," Daniel noted, "even though difficult, we are glad that the kids can continue at Immaculate Conception. I want everyone to know how much a highquality Catholic education can change lives and sets those lives in the right direction." Daniel asserts, "It makes all the difference in the world."
