The calendar is moving rapidly toward the end of the year. There are just two weeks remaining to take advantage of the charitable gift benefit for nonitemizers or expanded charitable gift deductions for itemizers. The nonitemizer deduction permits an individual to deduct up to $300 or a married couple up to $600, but it is scheduled to expire on December 31.

Edward Killen, Deputy Commissioner of the IRS Tax Exempt and Government Entities Division stated, "We encourage people, if you are considering a donation to a charity, to do it as soon as possible before the December 31 deadline."
