The Impact Your Support has on People in Brooklyn and Queens

Vocations

Paulo Salazar
Seminarian

The thought of my vocation began when I was a student at Cathedral Preparatory High School. I chose then to enter the House of Discernment where I was convinced of my calling to the priesthood, and so, I decided to enter the seminary. While in the seminary, I found an environment that offered excellent spiritual, academic, and fraternal formation. After graduating from St. John's University, I had the opportunity to be sent to the North American Pontifical College in Rome. I currently continue to advance in my priestly formation with the desire to serve as an ordained Priest for our people of Brooklyn and Queens. I am so grateful for all those who donate to the Annual Catholic Appeal, which makes possible my priestly formation.

Catholic Charities

Richard Slizeski
Vice President for Mission,
Catholic Charities

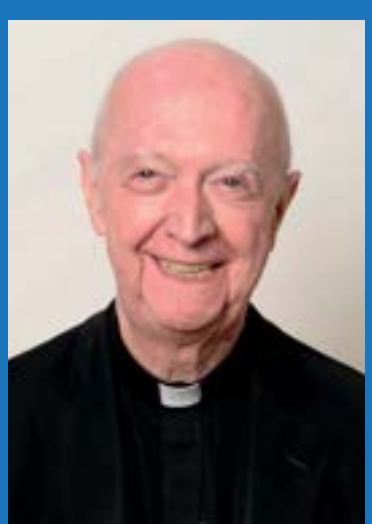
We are so appreciative that the Annual Catholic Appeal is here for us because that helps us to be here for others. This is more than just giving things to people it's walking with them; it's being part of their reality. It's been so difficult for so many families across Brooklyn and Queens, but they know that the Catholic Church is here to help them, and the Annual Catholic Appeal helps us be those people out in the communities and provide that support. We encourage your continuous support of the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Catholic Migration Services

Magdalena Barbosa
Attorney, Catholic Migration Services

The Annual Catholic Appeal supports the Catholic Migration Services office which helps vulnerable people in our communities, low-income people, and immigrant families, many of whom are our neighbors and live here in Brooklyn and Queens. One of the many services that Catholic Migration Service offers is assisting low-wage and immigrant workers with problems they might have on the job. Migrants often work long hours and in unsafe working conditions. Our office helps them recover any wages that they might be owed, we file claims and offer other services. These are people that cannot pay private attorneys, so we are resources for these individuals; often they are the ones that need legal assistance urgently to pay for their family's basic needs.

Care for Retired Priests



Monsignor
Edward Patrick Doran

Msgr. Edward P. Doran was ordained in 1984 and has been a priest for 39 years in the Diocese of Brooklyn. Msgr. Doran has served as a pastor for 3 Churches in the Diocese: St. Francis Xavier, St. Gerard Majella Shrine, and St. Charles Borromeo. Prior to his ordination, Father Doran was a member of the Marist Brothers for 21 years where he was director of guidance at Archbishop Molloy High School. He is a member of the Diocesan Addictions Committee; a part-time professor in the department of Counseling at St. John's University, Jamaica; and a part-time chaplain at Queensborough Community College. In June of 2022, Msgr. Doran moved to Bishop Mugavero Residence. Due to medical circumstances, it was essential for him to be in a setting that does not require him to climb many flights of stairs. Msgr. Doran remains active and continues to teach at the university as an adjunct professor in the Department of Counseling at St. John's University. Msgr. Doran enjoys being a resident at Bishop Mugavero Residence; he enjoys assisting his fellow priests, driving them to personal errands or appointments. He appreciates the many services provided, such as the exercise room and swimming pool, which he uses three days a week to remain active. Msgr. Doran finds that he has far more time for prayer and looks at the retirement residence as sort of the human "dynamo" for the priests, parishioners and the parish. Msgr. Doran is grateful and prays every day in thanksgiving for the generosity for himself and other retired priests that have benefited tremendously from the sacrificial offering of those who contribute to the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Chaplaincies

Fr. Bryan Carney
Chaplain,
Flushing Hospital Medical Center

"I am a retired member of the Armed Forces and presently a Lt. Colonel in the NY State Veteran Corp of 9th Field Artillery (Army). Nothing can prepare you for being a priest on the front line in ministering to individuals who are engaged in life's physical or emotional battles.
Chaplains are on the front lines of many life situations and emergency issues. For me, helping others as a chaplain is the epitome of serving others first when they need you the most. I enjoy ministering to the sick, aged, and dying, while giving sacraments to the front-line health care workers. I ask for your support for my ministry through the Annual Catholic Appeal. The Annual Catholic Appeal helps to provide chaplains for schools and hospitals throughout our diocese. It is through the ACA, that this ministry can continue to help those most in need and be a part of God's plan for His Church, His people, and those who serve on the front lines in Brooklyn and Queens."

Faith Formation

Christian Rada
Director of Marriage, Family Life, and
Respect for Life Education

"As Director for Marriage, Family, and Pro-Life, we provide opportunities for families to see that life is good, life is precious, and that life begins from conception to natural death. For those who unfortunately have had an abortion, the Annual Catholic Appeal provides us the necessary funds to gather and find healing through Scripture and fellowship. We are very grateful to the Annual Catholic Appeal for this."

Catholic Youth Ministry Initiative

Ana Nuñez
Youth Minister, St Piux V

From the beginning of my initiation as Youth Minister, the Youth and Young Adult Formation office has provided needed resources, support, and training to better serve our youth. Through the workshops, training, and retreats provided by the Catholic Youth Ministry Initiative, I have learned to lead our youth and guide them to a closer relationship with Christ. I am deeply grateful for the opportunities the generous donations of our parishes have provided to the youth of our diocese through the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Futures in Education

Changing lives through the gift of education

Trenton draws a picture of his family, including his dad in Heaven.

Amidst the loss of his father, a student finds hope in his Catholic school

At just six years old, Trenton has had to endure more hardships than most adults. He tragically lost his father to a sudden brain bleed, leaving him, his seven siblings, and his mom alone. The only constant became the support of his friends and the school community at Ss. Joachim and Anne Catholic Academy.
To add more trouble to this young child's life, the loss of his father made his future at his home away from home uncertain. His family did not know how they could afford to continue at Ss. Joachim and Anne without help from Futures in Education.
The financial support has enabled Trenton to continue his Catholic education.
Now, like other students his age, Trenton is able to focus on the things he enjoys; math, phonics, playing soccer, and spending time with his family.

Mission of ACA

The Annual Catholic Appeal is directed and operated by Catholic Foundation for Brooklyn and Queens.

The Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) provides an opportunity for each of us to unite in faith as a Catholic Community and to answer the call to meet the needs of those most vulnerable- the hungry, the homeless, the unemployed, the distressed, the spiritually poor, our children and elderly through essential ministries and services. The Annual Catholic Appeal unites both individual parishes and diocesan efforts to provide financial support for these essential ministries and services.

The Annual Catholic Appeal supports the Diocese and its parishes in three ways:

- Provides enhanced funding supporting Diocesan ministries, programs, and services
- Offers parishioners an opportunity to help provide for the work of the Church.
- Grants each parish an opportunity to raise funds for local initiatives and parish projects. One hundred percent (100%) of all funds received over the parish goal is sent back to individual parishes to help in their local parish projects.
