How the Annual Catholic Appeal has Impacted the People in Brooklyn and Queens Thanks to your Support

VOCATION SUPPORT

Rev. Toby Offiah

Newly ordained priest Tobechukwu "Toby" Offiah's journey to the priesthood was greatly supported by the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA), for which he is deeply grateful. From the moment he felt God's call in Nigeria in 2008 to his ordination in 2024, Fr. Offiah faced many challenges, including adjusting to life in the U.S. and discerning his vocation. However, the financial and spiritual support he received through the ACA was a key factor in his ability to complete his seminary studies at St. Joseph's Seminary. He credits the ACA with making his formation possible, enabling him to follow his vocation and serve God as a priest. Grateful for the support, Fr. Offiah emphasizes how essential the ACA has been in helping him pursue his calling and looks forward to serving the Diocese of Brooklyn with a heart full of gratitude. He is currently serving as Parochial Vicar at Sacred Heart Church in Bayside, Queens.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Kaelen Cordova Ramos

Kaelen was in a dire situation before the support she received through Catholic Charities supported by the Annual Catholic Appeal transformed her life. "I didn't believe such a kind organization existed that helps people so much. It has changed my life and how I see the world," she shared. The assistance she received gave her hope and inspired her to give back. Today, she is a dedicated volunteer at Catholic Charities, running the thrift shop at St. Pius in Jamaica. "I want to thank the Annual Catholic Appeal for supporting Catholic Charities and for all the help they've given me and so many others. I'm very grateful," she said. The Annual Catholic Appeal is crucial for sustaining countless ministries and services like this, providing vital aid to individuals and families in need. Kaelen adds, "I am deeply thankful to all donors and encourage everyone to continue supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal to help change more lives."

FAITH FORMATION

Henry Velastegui
Catechist

Henry Velastegui, a dedicated Catechist, has expressed how invaluable the support from the Holy Spirit Institute, made possible by the Annual Catholic Appeal, has been in his journey. He credits the excellent formation and education programs for equipping him with the knowledge and tools necessary to effectively share the richness of the Catholic faith. Guiding children on their spiritual journey and witnessing their growth in understanding God's love has been a true blessing for him. He is deeply grateful to the donors of the Annual Catholic Appeal for their steadfast support of faith formation, which enables catechists like Henry to serve their parishes and inspire future generations of faithful.
